The regular services will be held at the second Baptist Church. The quartet choir, consisting of Mrs. Maude Porter Gunn, Miss Mabel Diggs, Mr. Conway Gordon and Mr. Occar Lohman, with Mr. Herbert Rees as organist, is doing excellent work, and will render a fine program at both services. The Sunday school orchestra has been increased by the addition of a flute and trombone, and will render some fine selections at 2-20 A. M. The pastor, Dr. W. R. L. Smith, will preach at 11 A. M. and S. P. M.

The Lonely Life

The Tragic Confession of a Spinster, Who Realizes That No Fame or Wealth Can Compensate for the Solitude of Her Life.

In this article the author, whose name for obvious reasons we are not at liberty to disclose, drops for once the mask which she in common with other "Bachelor Maids," is accustomed to turn to the world.

Though no longer young, she frankly says she longs for the companionship of a husband and the care of children. The circumstances which have kept from her the happiness which these blessings bring are stated with the same directness which characterizes the whole article. It is the life-story of a "successful" woman, a drama of real life in which the last act is a tragedy.
